Fax for Anne Sloman

2nd October 2001

Dear Anne

Forgive me, but the Today Programme this morning was such a typical example of BBC Euro-phile bias that I feel I must at least point it out to you! Blair's vision was allowed to go entirely unchallenged, and Heseltine (Conservative splits) was wheeled on yet again and allowed to repeat the 'peace' propaganda ad nauseam.

Has anyone on the Today Programme actually read my speech against David Currie on 6/2/02? (iea.org.uk - speeches). Surely the fact that he ratted on his agreement to put his speech alongside says something?

Anyway, all best personal regards. Am returning to London 14th October.
